5•	On 20 and 21 January. the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse in Prenzlau was occupied by approximately 2,500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Four guns, presumably 122-mm field howitzers, 2 x 85-mm AT guns, 1 SP gun, spresumably a SU-100 gun, and approximately 27 trucks were seen in the
· y ·	installation. A column of 14 driving school trucks was on Roepersdorfer Strasse.	25X ₁
6.	On 21 January, the barracks installation northwest of Berliner Strasse in Prenzlau was occupied by appreximately 2,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Fifteen trucks, 3 T-34 tanks, 2 tanks or SP guns with a caliber of approximately 150 mm and 2	7
	tanks or SP guns with a caliber of approximately 75-mm were in the installation.	25X1
7.	On 20 January. approximately 300 soldiers participated in an exercise which was held in the training area west of Roepersdorfer Strasse.

	through Storkow south of Templin and proceeded southeastward. The same column returned through Storkow toward Camp Hammelspring on 14 January. On 13 January, JSU-122 guns	25X1
	left Camp Hammelspring.	25 X 1
9•	on 17 Jenuary. a column of 15 three-axle trucks towing heavy guns was near Zehdenick. The gun barrels were covered by tarpaulins. The guns which had dual wheels were coupled to the trucks by their	25 X 1 trails. 5
10.	Coal deliveries at the Vogelsang railroad station were sent to the following units: Shuck, Rakultsev, Petrov and Bulkov. According to the amount of coal, Units Shuck and Rakultsev must have an unusually high personnel strangth.
11.	In January 1955. wood was continually cut in Jagen (forest section) No 252 (plane table sheet No 2946, Hammelspring). During the first 6 months of 1955, 6 barracks buildings, 3 houses for dependents and 1 headquarters building were to be built there. Jagen No 208 was also cleared, allegedly for new barracks buildings. 7
12.	On 30 January. the following shipments were loaded at the Templin railroad station:	25 X 1
1	a shipment of 12 x 122-mm field howitzers, 10 x 85-mm AT guns, 8 x 45-mm AT guns, 6 x 120-mm mortars, 1 bus, and 50 trucks which left toward Oranienburg]
